Pastor's Notes

Gary N. McCluskey, Pastor

G. K. Chesterson, English philosopher, lay theologian, and Christian apologist, wrote, " When a person has found something he prefers to life itself, he (sic) for the first time has begun to live".

The holiday season draws near. Thanksgiving is seen as its "kickoff" with New Year's Day signaling the end of the season. The time between is a time of great festivity for many. While pressure is often greater, smiles and laughter seem more frequent as well. Such a time is not to be taken lightly nor looked down upon. The holidays can serve as a respite of sorts from the routine of the rest of the year. There is something to be said for such respite.

Life, however, is to be lived all year long. Every day. We wonder why we cannot capture in the other eleven months what we may experience, at least in glimpses, during the time between Thanksgiving and New Years. Perhaps we look or wish too hard. Perhaps we work too hard to create some purpose, some meaning, some joy and happiness that seems only too often to elude us. Perhaps in our looking we are casting aside the very thing that instead seeks us.

In many of the teachings of Jesus we hear Jesus proclaim about the Kingdom of God where Jesus tells us what we could prefer to life itself. It seems we are searching for something, someone, to prefer to life itself which we may too often find difficult, dull or joyless. If we listen to Jesus it seems Jesus is saying God is the only one to whom we can surrender without losing ourselves. The irony is that we may actually find ourselves.

Life has a way of tethering us to so many things from which we yearn to be free. God frees us not only from those things that tie us down in life, but actually from life itself. God does this so that we might truly begin to live. We might live as those who are free....those who may love, serve, cry, rejoice, and begin again as those not held back by anything or anyone including life itself. Do we look at our tethers for life and for meaning or do we look to the one who would free us from them? There is one who comes to us in life to lift us up above it so it does not hold us down.

PAGE TURNER'S BOOK CLUB

LIKE TO READ? Please join us at noon in the church library on the first Thursday of each month.

November 6, 2014 "The Historian" by Elizabeth Kostova

Exploring her father's library, a young woman finds an ancient book and a cache of yellowing letters. The letters are all addressed to "My dear and unfortunate successor" and they plunge her into a world she never dreamed of.

If you have any questions please e-mail Lori Jensen at loriinaz@cox.net. Thanks.

November Food Emphasis

We will have a special emphasis on hunger and food donations. As always we will receive gifts of non-perishable food items. We'll put the gifts in front of the altar during the month and watch the gifts grow each week. Enclosed in this newsletter is an envelope for Lutheran World Hunger, recognized as one of the world's top food relief agencies. Gifts of money for World Hunger are especially encouraged this month. Thank you!

We do so appreciate it!

Help Our Garden Grow!

Our community garden is well under way, located at the north east corner of the property. Our first bed has been dug and planted with a cover crop of clover. The clover will be turned back into the soil in the spring to get us closer to having a rich organic soil that will yield us plenty of vegetables and flowers in the future! In the meantime, we are hoping to plant some greens in pots, and are seeking donations to make this possible.

Please consider donating one of the items on this list or the money to purchase it:

Potting soil $15/bag (apprx 4cf)

Compost $12/bag (apprx 4cf)

Planting Pots Apprx $15 each

Wheelbarrow $60

Garden Fork $25

Our November work morning is scheduled for Saturday, November 15 @ 9:00 am. We will be spreading a brown mulch to help keep the Bermuda grass at bay!

If you would like more information or to volunteer, please contact the office at info@ulctempe.org or (480) 967-3543

Ruth Lindsay, Church Secretary

Choir

Choir rehearses on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 pm and on Sunday mornings at 9:45 am before the morning worship service.

You are welcome to join us; no experience is necessary!

For more information, please contact Aiko Mancini (ulc.choir@gmail.com).

Wednesday Worship

Each Wednesday we worship in the sanctuary 6:30pm-7:10pm. Worship is more contemporary style with a student praise band, Power Point instead of a bulletin, etc. Holy Communion is celebrated each week. Worship on Wednesdays is not just for students. Careful! Many who come once continue to return regularly!! Our theme for the first 3 Wednesdays in November is: ""Bread."

- November 5 "Not by Bread Alone"; Deuteronomy 8:1-10; Bread nourishes our physical life. What is it that gives us life?
- November 12 "Daily Bread", Luke 11:1-4; God is a God of abundance who provides for all our needs.
- November 19 "I am the Bread of Life"; John 6:30-35; As bread nourishes our body, Jesus provides sustenance and nourishment for life.
- November 26 Thanksgiving Eve Worship 6:30pm

Student Bible Study

5pm each Wednesday in the Campus Center. Our November theme is " Dreams".

- November 5 "Jacob's Dream"Genesis 28: 10-22; In this dream Jacob sees a ladder and finds himself standing next to God.
- November 12 Genesis 41: 1-36; Pharaoh has a dream and Joseph interprets the dream. God does not restrict himself from speaking to those outside the faith.
- November 19 Matthew 2:13-23; Joseph, the father of Jesus, is warned in a dream to take his child and Mary to Egypt to escape Herod's slaughter of male children.
- November 26 No Bible Study: Thanksgiving Eve Worship

Student Discussion Group

We meet in the Campus Center for four consecutive Fridays at 3pm-4pm beginning with Friday, October 31 and ending Friday, November 21. Together we look in-depth to various theological and Biblical topics. We met for four Fridays in September discussing such things as the relationship of Faith and Science, Who is/What is God?, and Resurrection.

- October 31 Did Jesus have to die?
- November 7 The Problem of Evil.
- November 14 The Bible as Word of God. What does this mean?
- November 21 The role of Jesus for faith.

To buy a 2014 Camaro SS.

Why did you start coming to LCM?

Melanie Lehnhardt (a fellow LCM student) dragged me here.

Christmas Family: Students are receiving offerings each time they gather for a meal to provide gifts and food for an area family for Christmas. Students have taken on this project for 10 years. They buy, wrap, and deliver the gifts, paid for by their gifts of money. They deliver the entire dinner for Christmas.

Winter Retreat

Our annual Winter Retreat for students will be January 23-25 in Sedona, Arizona. The campus ministries of NAU and U of A will all participate in this retreat.

Lefse!

Students are busy making Lefse to sell as a fund-raiser. Currently we are set up to sell lefse at 7 churches in the Valley with possibly one more to be added. If you would like a package of lefse, talk to Pastor Gary or Alicia. Cost is $10 per package.

BE SURE TO VOTE NOVEMBER 4!

And, of course, be an informed voter, and when the results are in, exercise your citizen power by communicating with your elected officials regarding issues on which your faith informs your views.

You may not have memorized the very first social statement of the ELCA back in 1991, when our church noted that we are committed to "work with and on behalf of the poor, the powerless and those who suffer", our efforts being to "seek to advance justice, peace and the care of creation." Through advocacy, we have the opportunity to work with lawmakers as we lift our voices to influence policies that advance the common good.

Before they left Washington in advance of the elections, Congress at least passed a continuing resolution (CR) to extend funding through mid-December, preventing a shutdown such as happened last year. Although the CR included additional funding to arm Syrian rebels, it did not include money to address the poverty that is driving children to flee from Latin America and swamp border stations. These and other issues may be taken up when they return.

Of importance, bipartisan bills were introduced to provide congressional authorization for President Obama's Feed the Future strategy--a $1 billion-a-year plan to boost agricultural development and address malnutrition in select poor countries. H.R. 5656 and S.2909 would make the program permanent beyond this administration. Bread for the World supports these as good starting points, urging Congress to seek additional provisions that focus on nutrition, the 1,000-day window of nutrition for pregnant women and infants, and the empowerment of small-holder women farmers.

You can keep up to date on these and other developments with regular check-ins at www.ELCA/org/hunger and www.bread.org.

Then let your congressional representatives know your views by using Bread's toll free number at 1-800-826-3688. (And not just once!)

Ruth Wootten

Arizona Cardinal Game

We still have a few tickets left for the November 16 game vs. the Detroit Lions, 2:25pm ( plenty of time to get there after worship) . Cost is $46.25 or $51.25 per ticket. LCM receives $10 per ticket sold. Parking is free. There is a $4.00 charge per transaction as a service fee. Forms are on the desk at the church entrance. You may send them in or give them to Pastor Gary or Alicia. Hurry....the game is almost sold out!

ABBY HENDERSON PREACHING

LCM alum, Abby Henderson, will preach at our Wednesday worship, November 12. Abby spent the last year in South Africa working for Young Adults in Global Mission (YAGM), a ministry of the ELCA. Abby currently works for YAGM as a student recruiter. Abby's older brother Ben is also an alum of LCM/ASU.

Lessons & Carols

Mark your calendars now! The service for Lessons and Carols will be Wednesday, December 3, 6:30pm. Invite your friends now! This has been an outstanding tradition here at ULC/LCM the past several years and a great way to begin the Advent Season.

Christmas Decorations

Beginning Sunday, November 16 we will receive offerings for Christmas decorations and Christmas trees to decorate our sanctuary. We will again have four Christmas trees. If you would like to honor or memorialize a loved one, please indicate it on the form that will be provided in the Sunday bulletin. We will list such designations in our Christmas Eve and Christmas Day bulletins. Mark your envelopes and/or checks "Flowers". Thank you!

Buy Your Christmas or Birthday Gifts and Know you are Helping Others!

Each year ULC/LCM hosts a Fair Trade Fair through SERRV. We will have catalogs available for people to look through and pre order any gifts they would like. Do not think only of Christmas, there are many ideas for giving throughout the year. SERRV works directly with artisans from developing countries to offer these products. The money goes directly back to the artisans and helps people and villages support themselves and their families. Supporting SERRV also supports health care, cooperative farms and schools in many areas in need through out our world.

SERRV catalogs will be available through November 9. Gifts should be here the beginning of December. Thank you for supporting our Fair Trade Fair!

Sunday, November 30-Sunday, December 14, SERRV Fair Trade Fair items will be available to purchase for anybody looking for a special and unique gift!

Men's Bakeoff

Circle the date! Men's Bakeoff will be Sunday, December 7. There is a new twist to it this year. It will be immediately after worship at about 11:45am. We'll have a potluck dinner followed by the auction of baked goods made by the men in our community.
